

You need to meet your obligations as a federal agency to oversee the actions of Sinclair Broadcasting more effectively - you should force them to label their "documentary" on Kerry as paid political advertising rather than the label they provide. Do your job!!!